FRISCO POLICE LOOKING FOR ROBBERY SUSPECT

FRISCO, TX – The Frisco Police Department is seeking information regarding an aggravated robbery that occurred around 9:20 p.m. at Stonebriar Mall, 2601 Preston Road, on October 14, 2010. On that date, a Hispanic male described as being in his mid-twenties, approximately 5'07" tall, weighing approximately 150 lbs, with short dark hair robbed a victim at gunpoint of her vehicle. The victim's vehicle is a white 2005 Acura TSX four-door sedan with Texas license plate JRB 820.

Frisco detectives are still searching for the suspect and victim's vehicle. The suspect has been seen making several purchases at gas stations in Dallas and The Colony using the victim's credit card. Surveillance camera images of the suspect are attached to this press release.

Individuals with information about the suspect or vehicle are asked to contact the Frisco Police Department's Criminal Investigations Division at 972.292.6200. The suspect in this case is to be considered armed and dangerous.
